Fullerton Restaurant Week Features Italian Flavors and More

Fullerton, CA (July 20, 2010) – Warm plates of lasagna, pasta, and pizza topped with mozzarella and various meats and vegetables are ready to satisfy the cravings of patrons during Fullerton Restaurant Week, which runs Sunday, August 1 through Saturday, August 7.

Downtown Fullerton staple, Angelo's and Vinci's, will delight patrons with their all-you-can-eat buffet, a Sunday Champagne brunch with chocolate fountain, and pizza to go. Dinner includes four courses and wine pairings. Lunch prices start at $10 and dinner is $20. Angelo's and Vinci's is located at 550 N. Harbor Blvd.

Florentine's Downtown Grill, located at 102 N. Harbor Blvd. in downtown Fullerton, will offer diners a tour of Italy with entrée selections including chicken pesto, lasagna, chicken Florentine, chicken marsala, tilapia piccata, and more. The lunch and dinner specials are available for $10.

Comfort food is king at Lomeli's Italian Restaurant with their hearty favorites. Lunch and dinner specials include chicken, veal, or eggplant parmigiana, shrimp scampi, Italian scallops, chicken cacciatore, and more. Meals include minestrone soup or salad, garlic bread, ice cream and a complimentary glass of house wine. Lomeli's Italian Restaurant is located at 1000 E. Bastanchury Rd., Suite B. Prices are $10 for lunch and $10 and $20 for dinner.

Mulberry Street is the Cheers of Fullerton—a place where everybody knows your name. The restaurant will offer a $15 lunch and $20 dinner during Restaurant Week at the 114 W. Wilshire location. Daily specials featuring or fresh fish accompanied by soup, salad, dessert, and soft drink will be available for patrons. Dinner menus include a glass of house wine.
